

talking art

ICA

Talking Art is a series of salon-style discussions about the business of being an artist. These gatherings will attempt to unlock the mysteries of the art world and provide working artists, students, and community members the opportunity to network and exchange ideas while surrounded by changing exhibitions of contemporary art.

To learn more about the entire discussion schedule, click here >