San Jose Institute of Contemporary Art

May 30 – August 2, 2008

Opening Reception and Block Party: First Friday June 6, 6 PM - late

Closing Party and Award Ceremony: First Friday August 1, 6 - 8 PM

Crater Bay Area: A Lunar Drawing Contest is a participatory art project created by Nora Ligorano and Marshall Reese (the Artists) and held at San Jose Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) from May 30th to August 2nd, 2008.

- Slots will be assigned on a first-come first-served basis. Contestants should show up 15 minutes prior to their confirmed time slot to the ICA gallery, 560 South First Street, San Jose, CA 95113.
- Drawing sessions are 30 minutes with 15 minute allowance for setup and cleanup.
- All materials will be provided by ICA: traditional setup (easel, acid-free art paper, graphite, conté crayons, colored pencils, markers), or Computer setup (Mac computer, with tablet and mouse, Photoshop and inkjet printer).
- Contestants will not be allowed to bring outside materials or computer files.

Entries will be reviewed and three winners selected by a jury of artists, curators, critics and celebrities. Prizes will be awarded in a ceremony at ICA on Friday August 1, 2008, and will be in the form of a deed for a plot of property on the Moon.

Winners

First place prize - 3 acres on the Sea of Tranquility

Second place prize - 2 acres on the Bay of Rainbows

Third place prize - 1 acre on the Sea of Vapors

There will be 7 honorable mentions.
